Erasmus+ project GIG UP 2021-1-DE04-KA220-YOU-000028951

Dear GIG UP Community,

As we approach the culmination of our journey together, we are happy to share the latest updates from the GIG UP project. From empowering young individuals to the successful completion of our Handbook, let's take a look into our latest achievements.

Your journey towards success begins with the GIG UP Handbook.

Download it now and Empower Your Future!

GIG UP Online Library: Empowering the Gig Economy

The GIG UP Library continues to be a valuable resource, offering a diverse range of materials, from micro-lessons to games and infographics. With over 10 topics covering essential competencies, the library equips young people with the knowledge and skills needed for success in the gig economy. Explore our Online Library at gigup.myerasmus.net to integrate these valuable resources into your programs.

Multiplier Events Across Partner Countries

Our partners have successfully organized multiplier events in each partner country to promote the GIG UP project. These events have been crucial in spreading awareness and engaging with diverse audiences. We appreciate the dedication of our partners in making these events a success.

Final Evaluation Meeting in Spain

The GIG UP project's final evaluation meeting occurred on January 29th and 30th of January 2024 in Valladolid, Spain. Partners from each country convened at Acción Laboral Headquarters to review the project's impact and achievements.

Key Highlights from the Evaluation Meeting:

- Revision of final products (PR1 and PR2)
- Multiplier Events discussion
- Handbook Finalization
- Future collaboration
- Project Continuity

Project Continuity and Future Endeavours

While the project officially concludes, our mission and collaboration continue. The GIG UP community will stay connected, and the materials will remain accessible to support trainers and young people navigating the gig economy.

We sincerely thank all partners, contributors, and participants for making GIG UP a transformative experience.
